Funding

For your I-20 or DS-2019, you must show proof of funding for the estimated total cost for one academic year. All costs are subject to change. The amounts shown on this form and on your I-20 or DS-2019 are estimates only. Your actual academic costs, living expenses, and medical insurance may vary.

The estimated costs for the 2026–2027 academic year

	Undergraduate (30 credits) ¹	Graduate (18-33 credits) ²
Tuition and Fees	$39,830
Living Expenses (room, board, transportation, and personal expenses)	$21,865	$36,982
Required Medical Insurance	$4,195	$4,195
Estimated Total Costs	$65,890³	Sum of the costs³

¹Undergraduate students in F-1 and J-1 status are required to enroll full time during each fall and spring semester but are not required to enroll for summer. The tuition costs shown are based on minimum enrollment for nine months (fall/spring) of study and do not include summer tuition.

²Graduate students in F-1 and J-1 status are required to enroll full time during each fall and spring semester. Some programs require summer enrollments, therefore the tuition cost shown vary based on minimum enrollment of your specific program. The total living expenses is $36,982 ($27,806 fall/spring and $9,176 for summer).

³Total costs listed are estimates and are subject to change. Tuition rates are set annually in late spring for the following academic year. Some programs may charge tuition at a higher rate. We reserve the right to request additional documentation if necessary prior to issuing your I-20 form. The latest tuition rates, listed by program, can be found at studentaccounts.gmu.edu/tuition-fees. Required medical insurance actual rates are not set until late spring.

Note: Tuition may vary for graduate students holding assistantships. Stipends and benefits are determined by each academic department. You may use your stipend as partial proof of financial support. Please refer to your offer letter for award details and include a copy of the agreement letter with this form.

Sources of Funding

Funds for the first year must be guaranteed. Funds for subsequent years must be committed. Your signature is required below. If parents or other individuals are providing funding, they must also sign below. Funding assistance from George Mason University or Government Sponsorship do not require sponsor signature.

We accept:

- Bank statements or letters
- Money market statements
- Stock portfolio summary statements for US-based investment companies (we accept 30% of the value stated and the document must be dated within 1 month of I-20 application submission date)
- Pre-approved education loan and other loan certificates or letters (must specify the name of the student, dates valid, amount of loan, and any limitations/conditions)
- Gold certificate issued by a government agency, bank, or investment company (we do not accept jewelry valuations)
- Corporate sponsorship letter must meet the requirements specified at <https://oips.gmu.edu/proof-of-funding/>

Please note: Students holding F-1 or J-1 visas should not anticipate employment as a means of support while at Mason. Employment for students with F-1 and J-1 visas is restricted. The payment schedule is posted on <https://studentaccounts.gmu.edu/> each semester.

The university is required to review your financial documentation prior to issuing an I-20 or DS-2019 form. You must document sufficient funds available for your first year's academic and living expenses and assured sources of support for subsequent years. You are responsible for all payments to the university in accordance with the tuition/fee schedule in effect at the time of your enrollment for each semester of your attendance.

Submit current (within the previous 6 months) original bank statements and/or letters of support, including the appropriate signatures and/or seal of the issuing authority. Please note, all funding documents must be in English. If the source(s) of your support will change after the first year, please explain on a separate sheet.

We cannot issue your immigration document (I-20 or DS-2019) until we receive and qualifying supplemental documentation from you.

For further information about requesting your I-20 or DS-2019, applying for your visa, and preparing for your studies at Mason, visit <http://oips.gmu.edu/new-students/>.
