

Allison Miner, EdD, MS, LDN

<http://thesmarteater.com>

Professional Experience

Assistant Professor Nutrition and Food Studies, George Mason University

Dates of employment	8/14/23 – Present
Duties	• Develop and teach variety of required nutrition courses for the Master of Nutrition Dietetic Concentration. • Assistant Director, Master of Science Dietetic Concentration program
Supervisor	Elizabeth De Jonge, PhD 703-993-5153

Contract Dietitian, Transportation Security Administration, Health Unit

Dates of employment	9/28/20 - Present
Duties	• Provide nutrition therapy for potentially 62,000 employees of Transportation Security Administration: one-on-one counseling, group webinars, and cooking demonstrations • Counseling includes weight management, diabetes management, in-born errors of metabolism management, cardiovascular disease management • Completed webinars: ○ Nutrition Tips for Diabetes Mellitus ○ Healthy At Any Size ○ 10 Things You Didn't Know Were Hurting Your Heart ○ Personalize Your Plate ○ Quick and Nutritious Breakfast (cooking demo) ○ Healthy Vegan Meal (cooking demo) ○ Beverages with Benefits (cooking demo) ○ Getting started on your weight loss goals
Supervisor	Dawn McCarthy Director, TSA Health Unit 571-227-1633 Lora Halstenberg Program Manager, STG International 703-578-6030, ext. 219

Allison Miner, EdD, MS, LDN

SME and Reviewer for Inclusivity and Diversity, Cengage

Dates of employment	6/1/21 – 7/1/23
Duties	- Served as the instructor/subject matter expert to review the revised manuscript for Principles and Labs for Fitness and Wellness, 16th ed. - Reviewed the content for Inclusivity and Diversity per Cengage's updated guidelines which include ensuring the content is not offensive or triggering for students, free from stereotypes that alienate learners, does not contain outdated terms, and recognizes the full range of learner's diversity - Reviewed and revised tests and quizzes for 16th ed.
Supervisor	Samantha Rundle Content Manager 617-289-7825

Lecturer and Course Director, George Washington University School of Public Health

Dates of employment	1/2019 – 6/2023
Duties	- Teach Nutrition and Food Environment Assessment and Food Systems and Public Health to undergraduate and graduate students (2U) in the Public Health Nutrition program. - Assigned to Course Director role for Food Systems and Public Health graduate course overseeing other instructors teaching the course. Responsible for selecting, onboarding, and mentoring faculty.
Supervisor	Kim Robien, PhD Supervisor 202-994-0082

Clinical Dietitian, Inova Hospital Alexandria CardioPulmonary Rehabilitation

Dates of employment	3/2020 – 5/2023
Duties	- Initiated and developed cardiac and pulmonary nutrition education program. No such program existed at this location. - Create education materials for program and patients. - Provide medical nutrition therapy (MNT) for Inova Health patients with heart and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease.
Supervisor	Srilekha Reddy Palle, PT, DPT, MBA 703-504-3541

Allison Miner, EdD, MS, LDN

Clinical Dietitian, Kaiser Permanente

Dates of employment	6/2018 – 1/2020
Duties	• Provide medical nutrition therapy (MNT) for Kaiser Permanente members. • MNT includes (but is not limited to): Diabetes, Obesity, Hyperlipidemia, NASH, Allergies, IBS, Pediatrics, Renal Disease, Eating disorders, Cancer.
Supervisor	Nina Kolbe, MS, RD 202-390-8044

Visiting Director, Master's Program in Nutrition, University of the District of Columbia

Dates of employment	8/2017 – 6/2018
Duties	• Managed Master's Program in Nutrition • Faculty advisor for all graduate nutrition thesis research • Taught in the undergraduate Didactic in Dietetics Program (DPD) and master's program • Advised DPD undergraduate students • Faculty Advisor for Student Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Club • Developed and maintained the Master DPD and Graduate Master Blackboard Organizations for the purpose with ensuring proper communication and a repository for program information • Developed and taught Introduction to Nutrition, an undergraduate course, and Nutrition for Disease Prevention and Treatment, a graduate level course • Worked collaboratively with CAUSES land-grant staff to ensure students were aware of resources and research opportunities • Worked closely with marketing staff to create marketing materials and contribute to the CAUSES monthly newsletter • Member of the Graduate Council • Performed outreach to establish relationships within UDC and DC community partners for the benefit of students, the university, and the public
Supervisor	Chair, Health, Nursing, and Nutrition Department University of the District of Columbia 202-274-5516

Instructor and Supervisor of Practice Experience, University of Miami

Dates of employment	1/2016 – 6/2017
Duties	• Supervisor of Practice Experience for graduate students in the Nutrition for Health and Human Performance program. • Instructor: Developed and taught Integrative and Functional Medicine and Introduction to Food Science.
Supervisor *This program is defunct	Wesley Smith, PhD 305-284-5756 wes@miami.edu

Allison Miner, EdD, MS, LDN

Tenured Professor, Prince George's Community College (PGCC), Largo, MD

Dates of employment	1994 – 2014
Duties	• Tenured 2006, Full Professor, 2011 • Course Coordinator 2009 - 2011 for Nutrition and Food Science program • Developed curriculum and taught nutrition and food science to non-science majors for underserved, low-income minority populations. • Nutrition course content included government guidelines such as the USDA's MyPlate, Dietary Guidelines for Americans, Nutrition Facts food label, food policy, digestion, utilization of nutrients, relationship of diet to disease and nutrition through the lifecycle • Course also included support of the world community through nutrition outreach such as conducting food drives for local shelters, learning about food insecurity and hunger in the US population, and US government programs to alleviate hunger • Food Science course included the chemistry of food, local food production and distribution, food marketing and development, and FDA and USDA food regulation and safety guidelines • Utilized informatics to assess student nutrition knowledge across all sections; managed team of nutrition faculty in the development of an assessment tool to use among all faculty and sections; disseminated assessment tool among all nutrition faculty; collected and analyzed assessment data; revised curriculum to improve knowledge in target areas; re-assess students utilizing same metrics to track progress • Developed Master Nutrition Blackboard site for faculty as a template and portal to nutrition materials and resources • Developed and managed PGCC Health and Wellness Fair; brought together relevant internal stakeholders (nurse, psychologist) with external stakeholders (PG County Department of Health, Washington Post, Children's Hospital, Kaiser Permanente, NIH) to provide services and information related to nutrition and health for underserved minority populations • Developed "Nutrition Minute" educational videos on various nutrition topics for Prince George's County cable TV station for underserved minority populations • Represented PGCC as a nutrition spokesperson and expert on issues relative to local low-income minorities (see Public Presentations and Outreach header below)
Supervisor	Natalie Webb, MS, RD 301-322-0557 webbna@pgcc.edu

Allison Miner, EdD, MS, LDN

Quality Assurance Training Manager, Florida International University (FIU) Online, Miami, FL

Dates of employment	6/2011 – 6/2014
Duties	• Developed and implemented quality assurance program and process for online program • Managed quality assurance training team • Managed the development and delivery of training for FIU Online faculty • Developed and facilitated Introduction to Online Teaching for new online faculty • Developed and managed Faculty Advisory Board for quality assurance program • Developed and managed accreditation report for FIU Online; utilized informatics to assess customer service satisfaction across three departments; assisted staff in the development of assessment tools, collection of data, analysis of data, and goals for continuous improvement. Contributing writer, FIU Online quarterly newsletter, Miami, Florida
Supervisor	Former supervisor no longer with FIU Online 305-348-8490

Independent Trainer, Quality Matters, Inc. (QM) Inter-Institutional Quality Assurance in Online Learning, Annapolis, MD

Dates of employment	2007-2014
Duties	• Part of state-wide faculty panel that helped to set-up review process for on-line courses for quality standards identified by QM during initial grant period • Certified Peer Reviewer since 2003, Certified Master Peer Reviewer since 2006, Certified Trainer since 2007 • Facilitated multiple face-to-face workshops of Applying the Quality Matters Rubric at post-secondary institutions in Maryland, Virginia, New York, Massachusetts, Georgia, and Florida • Facilitated online trainings for Peer Reviewer Certification for faculty at post-secondary institutions nationally • Quality Matters Rubric Committee member for the 2014-16 Quality Matters rubric revision; used informatics to revise standards to improve the understanding and implementation among faculty
Supervisor	Brenda Boyd 410-497-8027 Brenda.boyd@qualitymatters.org

Allison Miner, EdD, MS, LDN

Education

Doctoral program, Morgan State University, Baltimore, Maryland (May, 2014)

Community College Leadership

Dissertation: The Effect of Quality Matters, Inc. Certification on Student Satisfaction at Florida International University Online

Master of Science, University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland (May, 1995)

International Nutrition

Thesis: Assessment of Coronary Heart Disease Risk in a Central and South American Sample Living in Washington, DC

Bachelor of Science, magna cum laude, University of Maryland (May, 1992)

Dietetics

Certificates and Memberships

Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental Disabilities, Certificate
(Spring, 2017)

Certified Distance Education Trainer, University of West Georgia, Department of Continuing Education
(Fall 2013)

Licensed Dietitian-Nutritionist (LDN), State of Maryland (DX2910), State of Florida (ND7719 - inactive),
District of Columbia (DI925)
(2008 – Present)

Member, Alexandria, Virginia Public Health Advisory Committee
(2018 – Present)

Member, Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics
(2016 - Present)

Member, International WELL Building Institute, Nourishment Advisory Board
(2021 - Present)

Member, Review and Examination Development Council, Board of Certified Nutrition Specialists
(2016 – 2018)

Allison Miner, EdD, MS, LDN

Publications and Presentations

Moderator for continuing education video on genetically engineered organisms featuring four experts from the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, U.S. Department of Agriculture, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, and U.S. Agency for International Development.

Reviewer and Contributor. Principles and Labs for Fitness 7 Wellness, 16th ed. (Cengage 2022), Werner Hoeger, Sharon Hoeger, Andrew Metter, and Amber Fawson.

Speaker, Registered Dietitian/Nutritionist Day 2022, The Role of Dietitians in Sustainable Food Systems and Diets, Springfield, Virginia.

Kantor MA, Miner A. 2002. Herbal dietary supplements: Attitudes, beliefs, and risk perceptions (abstr). IFT Annual Meeting, Anaheim.

Reviewer and Contributor. Nutrition: Real People Real Choices (Pearson-Prentice Hall Publishers 2008), Susan Hewlings and Denis Medeiros.

Reviewer and Contributor. Nutrition for Healthy Living (McGraw-Hill 2008), Wendy Schiff.

Miner, A., & Jackson, R. (1995). Assessment of Coronary Heart Disease Risk in a Central and South American Sample Living in Washington, D.C. Journal of the American Dietetic Association, 95(9). doi:10.1016/s0002-8223(95)00666-4

Gill, R., Jackson, R. T., Duane, M., Miner, A., & Khan, S. A. (2017, August 5). Comparison of Metabolic Syndrome Indicators in Two Samples of Central and South Americans Living in the Washington, D.C. Area in 1993-1994 and 2008-2009: Secular Changes in Metabolic Syndrome in Hispanics. Retrieved April 14, 2020, from <https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/28783050>

References

Available upon request