

F-1 INTERNATIONAL STUDENT LATE ARRIVAL FORM

George Mason University, 4400 University Drive MSN 3A4, Fairfax, VA 22030 - Phone: 703-993-2000

EXPLANATION OF LATE ARRIVAL FORM

Students are expected to arrive on campus before the first day of classes. However, some international students may encounter difficulties when preparing to travel, such as obtaining a U.S. entry visa and scheduling flights. In exceptional cases, George Mason University will allow a student to arrive on campus after the program start date. A student may request to arrive after the first day of classes by submitting this form to their academic department. The student must be registered for courses that meet field of study and F-1 compliance requirements. In addition, an authorized representative of the academic department must indicate approval for the student to arrive late. This form is used by the Office of International Admissions to assess a student's eligibility for late arrival. If eligible, the student's I-20 is updated to reflect a new program start date and new start of classes date of September 2nd 2025, or an earlier date, if specified below by the academic department.
